LEE KUAN YEW WATER PRIZE 2012

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

1. The Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize is an international award given annually to recognise an individual or organisation for outstanding contributions towards solving the world's water problems by applying novel technologies, or implementing innovative policies and programmes which benefit humanity. The Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize will be presented during the Singapore International Water Week annually. For 2012, the Water Week will be held from 2 to 6 July in Singapore.
2. The submission of nominations for Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize follows a strict process, and under which the submission of nominations are accepted only from qualified Nominators. Nominators are expected to be one of the following:
 - Water industry or water utilities leaders
 - Leading academics in the field of water research, policy and management
 - Heads of international organisation
 - Members of government
 - Individuals deemed fit by Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize Nominating Committee
3. Self-nominations and nominations by family members of Nominees will not be accepted. Self-nomination includes nomination made by an individual from the same organisation as the Nominee.
4. All nominations will be examined by the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize Nominating Committee. Its members include leaders of water companies, and distinguished academics in the water sector. The Committee will make its recommendation to the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize Council, which will make the final selection of the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize Laureate.
5. Nominations for the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize 2012 open on 5 July 2011. All nominations for the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize 2012 must be submitted to the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize Secretariat by 31 October 2011.
6. The official nomination form and all accompanying materials must be submitted in English. Information about the Nominee and the Nominator should be filled in completely and as accurately as possible in the nomination form.
7. The completed nomination form must consist of the following:
 - (a) A detailed write-up describing the nature of the cited technological innovation and/or the implemented water policy and programme. The write-up should clearly highlight the role of the nominee in delivering actual wide-scale benefits to society either by a technological innovation or by the effective implementation of a novel policy/programme in the field of water.
The write-up should not exceed 5 single-spaced pages typed in a 12-point font;
 - (b) A summary (not exceeding 200 words) of the nominee's achievements in terms of its relevance to the Lee Kuan Yew Water Prize must be submitted as a part of the nomination;
 - (c) Names and contact information (e.g. email, telephone, fax, mailing address etc.) of two to five referees who are familiar with the work of the nominee but not directly involved in it; and
 - (d) Additional supporting documents such as articles, curriculum vitae, background information about the organisation, publications, reports, videos, testimonials or any other material which provides relevant support to the nomination.

Please submit softcopies as far as possible and ONE hardcopy.

8. The completed nomination documents should be mailed to:
