MR HERBERT DREISEITL

FOUNDER
ATELIER DREISEITL

Germany

Herbert Dreiseitl is an internationally renowned artist, landscape architect and an interdisciplinary planner.

He is a founder of Atelier Dreiseitl, a globally integrated design studio with a 30-year history of excellence in landscape architecture and urban planning. Profoundly inspiring and innovative use of water to solve environmental challenges is an acclaimed hallmark of Herbert.

He has realized groundbreaking contemporary designs in the fields of urban hydrology, water design and stormwater management. For Herbert, art serves as the connection between place and person, making the esoteric understandable. He is active in lecturing worldwide and has authored many publications including “New Waterscapes –Planning, Building and Designing with Water.”

As a 2010/11 Harvard’s Loeb fellow Herbert embraces the challenge and a professional responsibility to lead efforts in research on urban policy and design practices for water resource management and examine how to advance these strategies for optimized benefit to nature and humanity.
