WATER LEADERS SUMMIT

The Water Leaders Summit (WLS) presents an exclusive high-level gathering of global water industry leaders for exchanges with government regulators and policy think-tanks to discuss solutions to pressing water issues.

Today, cities are increasingly threatened by water scarcity. Swelling populations, rising water demand and climate change will challenge many cities' potential to be engines of progress and prosperity. In this light, WLS 2018, to be held from 8-10 July 2018, will focus on the urgent question of how water management should evolve as cities develop.

BY-INVITATION ONLY

Be among global leaders and decision makers from the government, international organisations and leading companies. Water Leaders Summit delegates enjoy access to all Singapore International Water Week, World Cities Summit and CleanEnviro Summit Singapore events at no additional charge.

To register your interest, please contact us at waterleaderssummit@siww.com.sg
